Article2: (3) Elective Representative

An elective representative shall be chosen by ballot from among the members of a Council to represent it in the event of the Master, Deputy Master, and the Principal Conductor of Work shall fail to attend a particular Assembly of the Grand Council and such elected representative shall be given a certificate of his election under the seal of his council.

Article 2: (4) Council Representation

Each Constituent Council shall be represented at each Annual Assembly of the Grand Council by at least one of the following: the Illustrious Master or in his absence, the Deputy Master, the Principal Conductor of Work, or an elected representative, in person, as provided by law. A Council failing to be represented at two consecutive Grand Assemblies will show just cause to arrest the charter of the Council, and the Most Illustrious Grand Master will report his actions to the Grand Council.
