PROLEGOMENA

Authority and-Plan of this Digest

- I. The Grand Chapter of Kentucky authorized and adopted Constitutions in the years 1818, 1860, 1880, 1897, and 1911. An updated Constitution, Regulations and Code, which contained amendments made since 1911, was prepared and printed in 1948.
- II. This Digest (Constitution, Rules and Regulations) was compiled and prepared by a Committee consisting of PG11P James B. WALL (who had made the original recommendation in his report to the Grand Chapter in 1980) as Chairman, assisted by PGHP's Virgil K. BALLARD and Robert L. COOPER, these three having been appointed as a special Committee for this purpose by Grand High Priest J.B. HITT, II in 1987 (see pages 25 & 58 of 1987 proceedings.)

This Digest dispenses with paging and relies entirely on the numbering of Sections and Paragraphs throughout.

Historical Data

- IV. The Chapter Degrees are called "Capitular", because they are conferred in a Chapter, and the Lodges dependent or appurtenant thereto. ("Capitular belonging to a Chapter".) The predominating tincture is scarlet, symbolizing ardor and zeal, purification or regeneration; historically referring to the rebuilding of the Temple (called the Second Temple) in Jerusalem by Zerubbabel of the Royal House of David. He commenced the building about the year 530 B.C., and Royal Arch Masons commence their epoch with that year
 - V. The Royal Arch Degree is probably about 240 years old. Until 1797 it was conferred by irresponsible bodies, or under control of the 'Blue' Lodge, or in a Chapter appurtenant to a Symbolic Lodge. The other degrees conferred in American Chapters are more modern, probably little more than 200 years old.
 - VI. The word Arch in Royal Arch Masons was first used as meaning chief, or of an advanced or superior class; as Arch-Bishop or Arch-Angel. Therefore, an Arch-Mason was a Mason of a degree advanced beyond the Master Mason's Degree.
- A preliminary convention held on October 24, 1797 in Hartford, Connecticut, culminated in the formation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the Northern States of America, (January 24, 1798). It subsequently became the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America, (January 6, 1806). It has since been designated as the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, International, and is the International governing body of Capitular Masonry, under constitutional restrictions.
- VIII. The first authority for conferring the Capitular Degrees in Kentucky was granted on petition of a number of Companions in Lexington (1814), who said: "Recognizing the authority of this M.W. Grand Lodge (of Kentucky) over all congregations of Masons assembled within the State, we pray the sanction of this Most Worshipful Grand Lodge to our proceedings, and that a warrant may issue to us, authorizing us to open and hold a Royal Arch Chapter under Warrant No. 1, (i.e. the Charter of Lexington Lodge No. 1), and that, under the authority of that warrant we may be enabled, in addition to the ordinary workings under warrants granted by this Most Worshipful Lodge, to confer the degrees of Mark Master, Past Master, Most Excellent Master and Royal Arch Mason, and to do all other matters and things appertaining to a Royal Arch Chapter." In 1816 like power was granted for chapters under warrants of Lodges Nos. 4 and 5. A petition from brethren in Natchez, Mississippi, was refused because they were not known as Royal Arch Masons, it being stated that "if they were so known, and also known as skilled, it would be advisable to establish a Chapter there."
 - IX. Formation of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky. On August 30, 1816, the Grand Lodge of Kentucky authorized the Chapters working under Warrants 1, 4 and 5 to establish a Grand Chapter, provided that no chapter should be warranted without permission of the Grand Lodge.

All of which goes to show that the Grand Lodge claimed jurisdiction over Capitular Masonry, and that such right was conceded. December 4, 1817, representatives from the Lexington, Frankfort and Shelbyville Chapters met in Frankfort and adopted a preamble, setting out that they had been in existence for more than a year under authority of Warrants from Thomas Smith Webb, Deputy General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter, dated October 16, 1816 (less than two months after having recognized the Grand Lodge as sovereign authority in Kentucky Masonry), therefore, they resolved: "That it is expedient to proceed forthwith to form a Grand Royal Arch Chapter for the state of Kentucky," which was accordingly done. This action was approved by DeWitt Clinton, General Grand High Priest, December 30, 1817.

- X. Connection with the General Grand Chapter The Grand Chapter of Kentucky withdrew as a constituent of the national body in 1857, but reunited with it in 1873, and has remained affiliated with that body until the present (lay).
- XI. The Grand Chapter met in Frankfort, Dec. 1817, Jan, 1818, and 1819-1824; in Shelbyville Dec, 1818; in Lexington 1825-34, 1839-58, and 1983-84; in Louisville 1835, 1859-1982, and 1985 to the present time. It appears no convocations were held during the years 1836-1838. although some hold doubts in this regard.
- XII. In 1878 the Grand Chapter accepted control of the degrees of Royal and Select Master from the Grand Council of Kentucky, and surrendered this control in 1882. During this period the degrees were conferred in councils appurtenant to Chapters.

XIII. The following independent Lodges of Mark Masters were authorized by the Grand Chapter and organized in Kentucky_ When they ceased to work is not always clear.

Reg. 227. Effect of Rejection. The rejection of an applicant for the degrees or for affiliation is final. Such rejection does not affect the Masonic standing of a demitted companion or brother who applies for membership. (1988)

Reg. 228. Casting and Disclosing Ballot. A member cannot be arraigned (charged) for casting a black ball, but he may be for confessing that he did cast it because that would violate the essential secrecy of the ballot. (1988)

Reg. 229. Remarks Before, None After Ballot. Remarks, to a limited extent and in proper terms, before balloting on a candidate, are admissible, but it would be unmasonic after the result of the ballot is announced. (1988)

BOOKS

Reg. 230. Improper Books Prohibited — Penalty for Use. The use of improper and unauthorized books is ruinous in its influence. The use of such books within this jurisdiction will be regarded as a high offense. Any chapter or member thereof so offending will be proceeded against by this Grand Chapter, and have its charter arrested or the member tried for so doing. (1988)

Reg. 231. Books of Marks. Chapters shall keep a Book of Marks. and no brother should be exalted before he has recorded his mark therein. Reg. 233. Examination of Books. The examination of the books of the Secretary and Treasurer should be thorough, and take place immediately following the close of the fiscal year, or upon a change in the office of Secretary and/or Treasurer, or more frequently if needed. (1988)

BY-LAWS

Reg. 234. Change of By-Laws by Committee. It is not within the province of the Grand Chapter Committee on By-laws to require any change of a chapter by-law that does not conflict with the laws of this Grand Chapter. (1988)

Reg. 235. By-Laws — When Declared Void. A High Priest of a chapter cannot lawfully declare a by-law or set of by-laws null and void after the same has been approved by the Grand Chapter Committee on By-laws. (1988)

Reg 236. Grand Law Prevails. The fact that a By-law of a Chapter has been approved by the Grand Chapter Committee on By-laws does not mean that the provisions of the Constitution do not prevail. Should it be found that such By-law is not consistent with the Constitution and Regulations of this Grand Chapter, the provisions of the laws of the Grand Chapter shall take precedence and prevail, irrespective of whether such inconsistency existed at the time the By-law was approved or was caused by a later revision of the laws of this Grand Chapter. (1988)

Reg 237. How a Chapter May Amend By-Laws. A Chapter may, at any time, amend its By-laws in any respect that does not infringe upon this Constitution and the Laws of the Grand Chapter. but such amendment must be made in conformity with the provisions of this Constitution and their By-laws; provided that with the exception of date and hour of meeting, any amendments to the By-laws of a Chapter shall not become effective until they have been approved by the Grand Chapter Committee on By-laws. (1988)

Reg. 238. Vote Necessary to Amend and When. The By-laws of a Chapter cannot be amended, unless the proposed amendment be submitted in writing at a Stated Convocation and laid over until the next Stated Convocation, then be concurred in by at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members present; provided that at least 28 days must elapse after the proposal is submitted, and all the members of the chapter must have been notified as required by this Constitution, before such vote may be taken. (1988)

Reg. 239. Amendment to Amendment. Where an amendment to the By-laws has been before the Chapter for one month, an amendment to the amendment, then proposed, need not take the course of the original by being carried over an additional month, but may be acted upon at that Convocation if it is germane to the question being considered. (1988)

Reg. 240. Limit of Right to Vote or Hold Office. A By-law making the non-payment of dues, previous to suspension , a disqualification for holding office is constitutional. (82) (1988)

Reg. 242. Ritualistic Openings. Each Constituent Chapter is to have at least one stated convocation each month, with the date(s) and time for such stated convocations to be stated in their By-laws. Additionally, each chapter shall have at least four (4) full form ritualistic openings on the Royal Arch Degree during each year. The dates on which these full form openings on the Royal Arch Degree will be held shall be reported to the Grand High Priest as he may direct. (1988)

CALLED OFF

Reg. 243. Chapter Closed on Day Opened. A Chapter cannot call off from one day to another, but must be closed on the same day of its opening, except in the case of a trial commenced as provided for, and which trial cannot be concluded at such Convocation. In that event the Chapter may be called off to a day and hour certain, for consideration of the pending trial only. (1988)

Reg. 244. May Call Off and Open any Degree — But Must Close It. A chapter duly opened on any degree can call from labor to refreshment and open on any other degree, but the chapter must close each degree on which it opens. (1988)

CANDIDATE

Reg 245. Belief in God Essential. Belief in the existence of God is a fundamental tenet of Freemasonry, and is an indispensable prerequisite to eligibility to receive the Degrees. If a Candidate practices false pretense in obtaining admission to the Chapter by deceptively announcing such faith, or, if subsequent to his admission his mind, for any cause, should undergo a change of religious belief to the extent of repudiating or renouncing Faith in God, he ought to be expelled. Denying the main essential to a genuine Masonic life, he ought to be denied such privileges. (1988)

Reg. 246. Rejected. Petitions Anew. A candidate who has been rejected for the degrees or membership, and desires to again apply therefor, must petition or make application as in the first instance. (1988)

CHAPTERS

Reg. 247, Change of Chapter Name. The Grand Chapter, and not the Grand High Priest, has the power to change the name of a Chapter, on petition of the Chapter. (1988)

Reg. 248. Incorporation. The Incorporation of a Chapter does not affect the relationship between the Grand Chapter and the Constituent Chapter. (1988)

Reg. 249. Disposal of Property. A chapter has the right to manage its own property and to dispose of it - except when done with a view toward surrender or forfeiture of its charter, which would be an unlawful abuse of its rights and is absolutely void, rendering members consenting thereto liable to discipline. (1988)

Reg. 250. Claims — How Proven. Claims against defunct chapters should be proven as any claim against a decedent's estate is proved; i.e., by affidavit that the claim is just and has never been paid; that there is no offset or discount against the same, nor does it include any excessive rate of interest. As a rule there should be at least one corroborating, witness, or documentary evidence as to the correctness of the claim. (1988)

Reg. 251. Dues of Defunct Chapter Members. Members of a defunct chapter are to be charged dues to the date of surrender or forfeiture of the charter; that is up to the day the chapter actually became defunct. (1988)

CHAPTERS UNDER DISPENSATION (U.D.)

Reg. 252. Demits Accompany Petition for New Chapter. To obtain the consent of a chapter whose Jurisdiction would be affected by the establishment of a proposed new chapter, it is not necessary that demits accompany the petition when presented to a chapter for its action, nor would it be lawful in case of provisional demits, which must be sent direct to the Grand Secretary. (1988)

CHARTER

Reg. 253. Officers Named in Charter. The Grand Chapter shall name the first High Priest, King, Scribe and Captain of the Host of a chapter to which it grants a charter. (1988)

Res. 254. Last Charter Valid - Old One Returned or Arrest Follows. If a charter be granted to a chapter because the old one is reported to have been lost or destroyed, such action shall be equivalent to a cancellation of the old charter, and render it void and of no value. In case the old charter shall subsequently be found, the High Priest of such chapter shall immediately return it to the Grand Secretary. On his failure to do so, the Grand High Priest shall arrest the charter and cite the chapter to appear at the next annual convocation of the Grand Chapter, to show cause why its charter should not be revoked. (1988)

Reg. 255. When Charter is Lost or Destroyed. A chapter whose charter has been lost or destroyed by fire, and is given a formal certificate of its authority to continue working as a chapter (the certificate reciting that the charter had been lost or burned), is not a Chapter Under Dispensation, but is a chartered chapter, its charter never having been surrendered or revoked; but, such certificate shall be valid only through the next annual convocation of this Grand Chapter, and should so state on its face. (1988)

Reg. 256. Work in absence of Charter Illegal-Exception, Custodian. Work done in the absence of the dispensation or charter (or its equivalent) is illegal, except at public installations, when the actual presence of the charter is not required. If the charter of a chapter be in the anteroom of the chapter, it is present for all practical purposes. The High Priest of a chapter is the custodian of its charter. When traveling, the written dispensation of the Grand High Priest shall suffice, so as to lessen the chances of the charter being lost, stolen or damaged. (2003)

Reg. 257. Revocation of Charter. A charter can only be revoked by the Grand Chapter granting it. and a chapter can be permanently deprived of its charter only after being cited to show cause why it should not be done. (1988)

Reg. 258. Failing to Pay Dues. Mere failure to pay dues does not forfeit the charter, and the chapter has the right to exercise its functions until the charter is arrested, surrendered or revoked. (1988)

COMMITTEES

Reg. 259. Non-Affiliates — Not Eligible. Non-affiliates are not eligible to office or appointment on committees. (1988)

Reg. 260. Who Appoints. The High Priest, not the Council (1 High Priest, King, & Scribe), appoints committees not otherwise provided for, A by-law which surrenders the right to appoint all committees into the hands of the chair is improper. (1988)

Reg. 261. Report of Investigation Committee. When a Committee of Investigation reports upon the worthiness or un-worthiness of a petitioner, the chapter has no right to compel it to say in what way it came to its conclusion. (1988)

Reg. 262. Recommenders Not on Committee. A member having signed as recommending a petitioner, shall not be assigned to the Committee of Investigation for that petitioner. (1988)

Reg. 263. Agreeing, Who Reports — Vacancies. If a Committee has agreed upon a report, the member present may make the report in the absence of the other two, If it has taken no action, and at a Chapter convocation one or more months after their appointment two of the members of the committee are absent, the High Priest may treat their places as vacant and appoint others. The same result may be reached by a motion, but the High Priest may fill the vacancies by new appointment without a motion. The new committee may report at the same convocation, but it should investigate and report at the next convocation. (1988)

CONTRIBUTIONS

Reg. 264. Old Masons' Home. The Grand Chapter of Kentucky shall contribute to the Old Masons' Home of Kentucky, for the support of its beneficiaries, the sum of ten cents ($0.10) each year for every member of Kentucky Chapters as shown on the annual returns. (1998)

Reg. 265. Royal Arch Research Assistance. The Grand Chapter of Kentucky shall contribute to the Philanthropy of the General Grand Chapter, to wit: Royal Arch Research Assistance, the sum of ten cents ($0.10) each year for every member of Kentucky Chapters as shown on the annual returns. (1988)

Reg. 266. Youth Groups. The Grand Chapter of Kentucky shall contribute to each of the four Masonic Youth Groups in Kentucky, i.e. the Order of DeMolay, Rainbow for Girls, Jobs Daughters, and the Order of the Builders, the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) each year. (2000)

DEBTS

Reg. 268. Inability to Pay Debts. Inability to pay debts is not a masonic offense, but rather a misfortune, therefore a subject for compassion; but a debtors refusal to meet those obligations he is able to meet, being an infraction of the moral law, is a masonic offense, and subjects the offender to discipline. (1988)

DECISIONS

Reg. 269. Advice or Decision of the Grand High Priest. It is not improper for any Royal Arch Mason, nor any Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, to ask advice of the Grand High Priest on any point of Capitular Masonic Law; neither is it improper for the Grand High Priest to give advice in response to such request, or upon his own motion; but such advice does not rise to the dignity of a decision: A decision can be made only in response to a question concerning interpretation of the law, or in case of an appeal from the decision of a chapter or of its high priest. The question, or facts necessary to be stated to enable the Grand High Priest to understand the point or points in controversy, should be certified to the Grand High Priest, under seal of the chapter. (1988)

DEGREES

- Reg. 270. Chapters Confer Degrees Constituent Chapters —and not the Grand Chapter — confer the degrees, but they do so under authority delegated to them in Charters or Dispensations granted by the Grand Chapter, or its executive head, in accordance with the law. (1988)
- Reg. 271. Foreign Companions Healed. Companions from foreign jurisdictions which do not require the same degrees that are required within this Grand Chapter, who present themselves as Royal Arch Masons, producing satisfactory evidence of having received that degree, may be given the degrees, or take the several obligations of Mark Master, Past Master and Most Excellent Master, to the end that they may be healed, otherwise they could not visit a chapter. It would not be an invasion of jurisdiction to confer a missing degree upon a member of such foreign chapter. (1988)
- Reg. 272. Effect of Healing Foreign Companions. Healing a companion of a foreign jurisdiction to enable him to visit a chapter, does not confer upon him membership in a dependent lodge, nor does it affiliate him with the chapter. (1988)
- Reg. 273. Order of Degrees. The order of degrees cannot be changed without an amendment to the constitution of the General Grand Chapter. (1988)
- Reg. 274. Degrees on Ministers. It is NOT LAWFUL to confer the degrees upon clergymen without the constitutional fees. (1988)
- Reg. 275. Degrees at Called Convocations. The Degrees may be conferred at a called convocation. (1988)
- Reg. 276. Monitorial Parts of Degrees. While portions of the degrees are monitorial, it is highly improper to exemplify the monitorial parts in public. (1988)
- Reg. 277. Exaltation Defined. Symbolically, the goal sought in the Royal Arch Degree is the discovery of that which has been lost The Mas-ter's Word. Exaltation then is the communication to the candidate of that for which he has been searching. It is the end of his symbolic Masonic Labor. Revealing to the candidate, per ritual, in groups of three, the G.O.R.A.W. and the ineffable name constitutes exaltation. (1988)

DEMITTS

- Reg. 278. What Constitutes a Demit it is the action of the chapter which permits a member to withdraw from membership therein that constitutes a demit. The certificate of demit is but the written, authenticated statement of what the chapter has done, and in no case should it contain any recommendations. (1988)
- Reg. 279. Status After Demit. A demit severs the relation between the chapter and the member absolutely. To again become a member of the same chapter, he must petition and file his certificate of demit, the same as if he should apply to any other chapter. (1988)
- Reg. 280. Demit to Unworthy. A chapter should not grant a demit to one known to be unworthy, but should prefer charges against such member. For knowingly issuing a demit to an unworthy person, a chapter is liable to have its charter arrested. (1988)
- Reg. 281. Provisional Demits. Provisional demits are the only demits that can be granted to have effect conditioned on the happenings of anything thereafter. They are granted only to enable companions to unite in the formation of a new chapter, or re-habilitating one that is defunct, and are not to be delivered to any person save the Grand Secretary. (1988)

Reg. 282. To Remit Dues and Grant Demit. A Chapter has the right to remit the dues of a suspended member, restore him to membership subject to the provisions of the Constitution and Regulations of this Grand Chapter, and grant him a demit, but a Chapter cannot remit the dues (or receive the same from the family or friends) of a deceased member who died while under suspension for non-payment of dues. (1988)

Reg. 283. Demit is Personal Property. The rejection of an applicant for membership does not affect his Masonic standing. His certificate of demit must be restored to him if he be rejected. (1988)

DEMIT FROM DEFUNCT CHAPTERS

Reg. 284. Demits After Surrender of Charter. The members of a chapter cannot grant demits to themselves after surrendering the charter, neither are demitted Royal Arch Masons able to surrender the charter of a chapter. (1988)

Reg. 285. Demits by Grand Secretary. Pending the action of the Grand Chapter, demits cannot be issued by the Grand Secretary to members of a chapter whose charter has been arrested by the Grand High Priest, and the chapter cited to make answer. (1988)

Reg. 286. Penalty for Admitting Without Demit. A chapter admitting to membership a member of a defunct chapter in the absence of a demit from the Grand Secretary, becomes thereby liable to the Grand Chapter for the cost of a Grand Chapter demit, and to such additional punishment as the Grand Chapter shall impose (1988)

Reg. 287. Demits by Grand Secretary in Absence of Records. Demits are not to be withheld for the sole reason that the seal and records of a defunct chapter have not been returned to the Grand Secretary provided the status of the member can be determined, in the absence of such records, from information as may be filed in his office. (1988)

Reg. 288. Grand Chapter Demit — Inaction by Chapter. A. In the event the Grand Secretary is asked for assistance in obtaining a Demit from either a dormant Chapter, or a Secretary who has not replied to regular correspondence, the following procedures are to be followed:

1. The Grand Secretary will request of the complainant copies of at least two (2) letters written in request of a Demit,

2. After receiving proper evidence that a Demit has been requested with no results, the Grand Secretary will then forward such evidence by certified or registered mail to the Secretary of the constituent Chapter involved, with a request that either the Demit be issued, or a letter of explanation as to why a Demit cannot be issued be mailed to the Grand secretary by certified or registered mail.

3. In the event the Demit is not issued, or a reply received by the Grand Secretary by the end of the next quarterly reporting period following the lapse of ninety (90) days after mailing the request outlined in paragraph 2 above, the Grand Secretary shall issue a Grand Demit as explained in Keg. 287.

4. Any Chapter which fails to respond to the repeated requests for a Demit, and one is subsequently issued by the Grand Secretary in accordance with this Regulation, shall pay the Grand Chapter the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00), this being the charge for a Grand Chapter Demit. (1988)

DISTINCTIONS

Reg. 289. No Distinction Among Masons. All candidates for the degrees or for membership must petition a chapter, and alike be subjected to the ballot. (1988)

Reg. 292. Dues Cease When. Dues go on until the member dies, demits, is suspended or expelled, unless he is lawfully exempted by his chapter. (1988)

Reg. 293. Not Chargeable During Suspension. A suspended member is only chargeable with dues up to the time of his suspension, and not during the time he stood suspended. (1988)

Reg. 294. Dues Remitted. Dues can be remitted only by the consent of three-fourths (3/4) of the members present, expressed by ballot. (1988)

Reg. 295. Remitting Chapter Dues — No Effect on Grand Chapter Dues. A chapter has the right to remit dues owing by a member, and then grant him a demit if they so desire, but that will not relieve the chapter from payment of all dues and assessments levied by this Grand Chapter. (1988)

DUES TO THE GRAND CHAPTER

Reg. 296. Remission of Dues by Grand Chapter. The action of the Grand Chapter, should it decide to donate or remit the balance of dues which are due from a chapter, does not carry with it a remission of assessments. This would require separate action by the Grand Chapter. (1988)

Reg. 297. Grand High Priest Cannot Remit Dues. The Grand High Priest does not have the power to remit the dues or assessments due to the Grand Chapter from a constituent chapter. (1988)

ELECTIONS

Reg. 298. Election Void, When — Effect. An election of officers held on any other day or in any other way than that authorized by the laws of this Grand Chapter, or when the charter is not present, is illegal. Officers elected in any such manner cannot be installed, and the old officers hold over. (1988)

Reg. 299. Vote of the Sentinel. If the Sentinel be given an opportunity to vote, an election would not be void because of his failure to do so, and if he be inadvertently overlooked, and his vote could not change the results, the election is valid, (1988)

FINANCES

Reg. 303. Chapter Manages its Own. A constituent Chapter has a right to manage its own financial affairs, subject only to the restrictions prescribed by the Grand Chapter. (1988)

Reg. 304. Ministers Made Free Members — How. Section 155 of the constitution does NOT of itself make Ministers free members of constituent Chapters. This is permitted, but must be done, if at all, by the Chapter By-laws, (1988)

Reg. 305. Ministers Free Members — When. Ministers of the Gospel, under Section 155 of the constitution, are such ministers as are regularly engaged in this high calling, and (unless physically incapacitated) such as have a regular charge. The fact that it is necessary to supplement their meager salaries in other ways should be no bar to their being declared and reported as free members of the chapter. (1988)

Reg. 306. Errors in Reporting Free Members. A chapter having reported as a free member one who was not such in fact, and this error being discovered, the Grand Secretary shall charge the chapter with the amount that had been erroneously allowed as a credit to it. (1988)

- Reg. 314. Decisions Obeyed. A chapter should obey the mandate of the Grand High Priest, and upon refusal of its officers to submit to his decision, until reversed by the Grand Chapter, he should regard such action as revolutionary, and take the charter of the chapter into custody. (1988)

(1988)

Reg. 416 Annual Updating. In the remaining years (1,2,3, and 4 of each five year cycle), such changes as may have been made shall normally be published using 'paste in' stickers; provided that the Grand Secretary may have page(s) re-printed which contain such changes, if in his opinion doing so would best serve the interests of this Grand Chapter. All changes printed, whether 'paste in' stickers or complete pages, shall be prepared in such manner as to show the year the particular Section or Regulation was adopted, and also the year in which the page was re-printed as specified in Regulation 415 above. (1988)

VIOLENCE

Reg. 417. Right to Guard Against Violence. Thy Chapter or the High Priest has a right to guard against violence, even to the extent of excluding the offending member or visitor, from the Chapter room. (1988)

VISITORS

Keg. 418. Right to Visit. The right to visit is inherent in every chapter Mason, subject to objections provided for in Regulation 419, hence, brothers and companions may be admitted to bodies of their respective degrees, after due trial, strict examination, or lawful information. (1988)

Reg. 419. Objections to a Visitor. Any member of the Chapter proposed to be visited, may object to the presence of the visiting brother or companion, and upon such objection being made. he shall not be admitted; however, the objection does not extend to any convocation of the Chapter, or one of its subordinate Lodges, other than the one at which it is made and while the objector is present; provided that this Regulation shall have no effect with regard to visitations of the Grand High Priest, or of the Deputy Grand High Priests on their official visitations. (1988)

Reg. 420. Limitation to Excluding Visitors. It is not proper to provide that a visitor shall he "forever" excluded. A chapter cannot legislate for all time. (1988)

VOTE

Reg. 421. Who Votes. Every member of the Grand or of a constituent Chapter must vote if present and entitled to do so, unless he be excused, or he personally interested in the question then being considered, of which the Chapter is the judge. hence mere non-payment of dues does not debar him from voting or holding office; however a chapter may. in it Jay-laws, make the non-payment of dues a bar to holding office. (1988)

Reg. 422. How Excused. The power to excuse one from voting is not in the High Priest, but in the chapter or Grand Chapter, and rests with the majority. (1988)

VOUCHING

Reg. 423. Only When Known to be. A companion can vouch for a visitor only when he knows the visitor to be a Mason of the degree as avouched; or on lawful information: or after strict examination — provided that, in the judgement of the chapter, the one vouching for the visitor is competent to do so. (1988)

Reg. 424. Lawful Information and Vouching Defined. By "Lawful Masonic Information" is meant information that can only be received from one who is known to be competent to impart it. It, must be positive, beyond question, and imparted specifically for Masonic purposes, not casually. Vouching is hearing witness; and in witness-bearing only that should be told which is known to be true. (1988)

WORK

Reg. 425. None During Refreshment. No part of the work can be done by a Chapter while at refreshment. (1988)

WORSHIP

Reg. 426. No Dispensation Needed. If a constituent Chapter desires to attend religious worship in a body, it shall not be necessary to obtain a dispensation from the Grand High Priest to do so. (1988)

REPEALING

Reg. 427. Former Regulations. All Regulations of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky previously adopted, are hereby repealed. (1988)

ADMINISTRATIVE FORMS AND INSTRUCTIONS

The Minute Book is, or ought to be, a full account of the doings of the Chapter' Therefore, it should be plainly written, and carefully preserved. Each subject should form a separate paragraph, and the marginal notes, or index, should be given in the fewest words that will suggest the action it refers to.

When the minutes are recorded, the Secretary signs them at the left, as an attestation to their correctness. When they have been read, and approved, or corrected by the Chapter, the High Priest (the one presiding when they are approved) immediately signs them at the right. After that, no change can be made in the record. Any correction desired may appear in the minutes of a subsequent convocation. "Approving" the minutes does not equal an approval of the action of the chapter as such, but it is as much as to say the record is a correct statement of what actually was done, Get good books, have no other kind, and keep them properly.

The Cash Book is indispensable, and not only serves as a cash book proper, but also as an account with the Treasurer, giving full details. The total received, total paid to the Treasurer, with the dates, show at a glance whether the Secretary is, or is not, prompt. To the total paid the Treasurer, add the balance in his hands at the commencement of the year. and deduct from that the total amount of warrants drawn, and it will show the amount currently in his hands. Carry the footings forward, and at the close of the Masonic year (election) a statement of receipts and expenditures will appear in the last footings — or totals. At the beginning of the term commence anew.

Never receipt for money before the date, name of payer, and amount paid are entered, either in the stub of a receipt, or a memorandum book; or better, in the cash book.

The Ledger is the book for assembling each account under a proper heading. The blanks should invariably be properly filled, which means for example, that the names of the member should be entered in full —and that given names should not be reduced to initials, but written out as fully as is the surname.

List on the left, or debit side, the amount(s) which the member owes, and on the right, or credit side, the amount(s) paid. The number of the dues card issued him should also be listed, and the record should be annotated to show "DUES PRE-PAID FOR LIFE" if that is appropriate.

Examination of Secretary's Books

1. Check every item on the left (receipts) side of the cash book with the ledger postings (accounts with members), then go over both to see that everything has been "checked."
2. Check the amounts paid the Treasurer with that officer's receipts, and see that payments to him were promptly made.
3. Compare the warrants drawn, as entered in the cash book, or Treasurer's account, with the Treasurer's book.
4. See that the fees for degrees and other items are properly entered in the cash book, and charged or credited correctly in the ledgers (member accounts).
5. See that the footings of the cash book are correct and properly carried forward, and balance agrees with the Treasurer.
6. If anything seems to be wrong, or does not "tally" ascertain the cause.
7. Make a list of those owing one year's (or more) dues, and recommend in the report effective means to secure payment.
8. Remember, the Secretary is to collect and receive all chapter money. The Treasurer receives monies only from the Secretary.

Examination of Treasurer's Books

1. Compare and check every item of receipts entered in the Treasurer's cash book with the receipts he gave the Secretary, and with the Treasurer's bank book, to see if all were promptly deposited.
2. Compare and check each payment entered in the cash book with the properly drawn and endorsed warrants.
3. Add up both sides of the cash book, and see if the balance on hand corresponds with the bank book. Verify it by inquiry at the bank if necessary.
4. Examine every note, bond, or other asset and any insurance policies held by the Treasurer. See that they are in proper form and safely kept. Check them with the former (last) report, and authority for other investments or sales in the interim, and see that the interest or dividends received has been properly entered in the cash book.
5. If anything does not "checkup" right, find out why.
6. When everything is found correct, so state in the Treasurer's cash book, cancel the warrants (if appropriate) and file them with the Secretary.

To Establish A New Chapter

(See Sec. 178)

The instruction herein given must be (substantially) observed. Failure in this will only delay action on the petition, and prejudice the case, because if the petitioners cannot or will not follow instructions, it would tend to suggest their liability to disregard other laws and forms.

The first step is to prepare a petition, which should be substantially as follows:

THE PETITION

To: The Most Excellent Grand High Priest, The Grand Chapter of Kentucky. Royal Arch Masons of Kentucky:

The petition of the undersigned respectfully showeth that they are MASTER MASONS, and they are, or have been members of a regular Chapter of ROYAL ARCH MASONS, as will appear by the petitions and (provisional) demits attached hereto, along with the certificate of good standing in their particular Chapters of ROYAL ARCH MASONS.

Because of the convenience of their particular dwellings, and for what they deem to be other good and sufficient reasons, they desire to organize and form a CHAPTER of ROYAL ARCH MASONS, to be known and styled as _____Chapter, U.D., and paying due respect to the authority of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky, Royal Arch Masons, do pray the Mt. Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky, Royal Arch Masons to grant such dispensation to empower them assemble as a regular CHAPTER of Royal Arch Masons, at _____, County of _____, State of Kentucky, there to discharge the duties of Capitular Freemasonry according to the Constitution, Laws, and Edicts of the GRAND CHAPTER OF KENTUCKY, ROYAL ARCH MASONS and the GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER OF ROYAL ARCH MASONS, INTERNATIONAL.

They further petition that Companion _____ be the first HIGH PRIEST, that Companion _____ be the first KING, that Companion _____ be the first SCRIBE and that Companion _____ be the first CAPTAIN OF THE HOST.

The prayer of this petition being granted, the undersigned promise strict obedience to all the laws of the GRAND CHAPTER OF KENTUCKY, ROYAL ARCH MASONS, and of the GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER, ROYAL ARCH MASONS, INTERNATIONAL.

The Chapter of Royal Arch Masons which meets nearest the proposed location is _____ Chapter No. _____, Royal Arch Masons, and their approval, granted at their Stated Convocation held on _____ is attached hereto.

(This petition must contain the SIGNATURES (in full) of not less than 27 Royal Arch Masons. The back side of the form may be used for this purpose. Demits and/or Provisional Demits are to accompany the petition).

(Comments): The nearest Chapter (except as in Sec. 180) whose jurisdiction will be effected shall recommend the proposed chapter and certify that the Companions suggested for appointment as High Priest, King, Scribe, and Captain of the Host "have been examined as to their proficiency and were found to be capable of doing the work of the Capitular Degrees in a creditable manner."

All this being done, send the petition, demits (or provisional demits) of every petitioner, comments and recommendation of the chapter(s), and the fee ($50.00) to the Grand Secretary. Also include the name of a Past High Priest who can set the new chapter to work.

Proper books should be procured from the Grand Secretary.

To set a new chapter to work. Also to institute a newly chartered chapter.

Having the Dispensation, assemble the petitioners, and other Royal Arch Masons as may be convenient, in the Hall to be occupied. where the Grand High Priest or his proxy is to meet them. This order of business is then to be followed:

The installing/instituting officer takes his place and sounds the gavel. All take seats and maintain silence. All who are not Royal Arch Masons retire.

Installing Officer: "Companions we have assembled for the purpose of installing the officers of _____ Chapter _____ and setting it regularly to work (instituting it as a regularly chartered chapter). Companion _____ will please act as King, Companion _____ as Scribe," (and so on, filling the offices pro tempore.)

If the installing officer is the Grand High Priest, he needs no "proxy". If he is not, he directs the Secretary to read his commission of proxy. When that is done, the Secretary reads the dispensation (or charter), and the installing officer directs that these documents be copied IN FULL upon the minute book, then he proceeds to open a chapter of Royal Arch Masons in regular form.

An election to fill the offices of Treasurer and Secretary is held, and the remaining officers (save the top 4) are named by the one who is to be installed as High Priest, then the officers are regularly installed. (If the ceremony is for the purpose of instituting a newly chartered chapter. the "remaining officers" will be elected or appointed as their by-laws may provide).

The minutes should show exactly what was done, be signed by the installing officer and attested by the Secretary.

It will facilitate matters if the installing officer should communicate with the officers of the proposed chapter, and request that they cause the Commission of Proxy (if appropriate) and the Dispensation (or the Charter) to be copied in the minute book before he arrives.

The installing officer is to promptly render a report to the Grand Secretary, stating that the Chapter was set to work (instituted) at such a time, including a list of the officers and other such matters as may be appropriate.
